1. A plan of the marshaling yard in Berlin-Lichtenberg (N 53/Z 95) as of early November 1950 is attached for your information and retention.

25X1A

[REDACTED] Comment: The Berlin-Lichtenberg marshaling yard, which is located on the main line from Berlin to Küstrin, is of importance for the area east of Berlin, particularly for the northern section of the Berlin Outer Freight Ring. It was improved in the spring of 1950.

25X1A

[REDACTED] Its maximum capacity is believed to be 1,800 cars within a 24-hour period. According to operational reports of the Berlin regional railroad headquarters, from 750 to 900 cars are handled at the yard daily.
